Q2 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Is it the “b3_Applform” attached to the Prag_2013 document, the document we should have to fill for this pre-qualifying phase of the tender? 2) to complete the pre-qualifying phase of the tender, it is enough to complete the “b3_Applform” attached to the Prag_2013 document, or do we need for example: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Balance sheet to prove financial capacities b. Documents (invoices, approvals or similar) to prove the completion of specific studies/projects? c. CV of the Companies and/or people in the Companies, to prove technical capabilities? 3) In case of subcontractors, do they have to fill the same document (b3_Applform), no matter he part of the job they could be working on (10%, 27%, 39%?) 	A2 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Yes, B3 form – Standard application form for service contracts should be used when submitting applications. 2) Only standard application form for service contracts should be completed when submitting applications. Submitting additional documents in this phase of procurement procedure is not required. 3) No, subcontractor is not considered to be a consortium member for the purposes of the application form. Please note that only one application form is to be filled out per candidate, be it a consortium or an individual company. In case of consortium, names of all consortium members should be clearly indicated in the application form.
Q3 We are most probably planning to submit our proposal as a consortium together with another company. Regarding the signature of the “main application form” I understand that it is sufficient if this is signed by the consortium leader on behalf of the other consortium members. Or does it have to be signed by every consortium member?	A3 The application form is to be signed by the authorised representative of the consortium leader. The document which is to be submitted by every consortium member is the Declaration referred to in point 7 of the application form.
